NEW PROGRAM ASSOCIATE NAMED TO WOODS CHARITABLE FUND INC. STAFF

Woods Charitable Fund Inc., a private grantmaking foundation, this week announced the addition of Kathy Steinauer Smith to its staff as Program Associate. She will participate in grants management and program review for the Fund.

Before joining WCF, Steinauer Smith served as features editor at the Lincoln Journal Star, where she had worked in a variety of editing roles since 2005. She previously worked as an editor in the University Communications office at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln and at newspapers in Iowa, California, and Nevada.

She graduated from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln with a bachelor's of journalism degree and has been an adjunct instructor at the UNL College of Journalism and Mass Communications.
